

"Presence hours" is the time that NROs spend in the field or interacting with industry licences or public. The following chart shows how much time was used inspecting and patrolling different activities in 2016. This chart does not include enforcement time.