

QUARTERLY ENVIRONMENTAL ENFORCEMENT SUMMARY

1st Quarter 2015
(January 1 - March 31)

Protecting the Splendor of our Natural Places

Highlights

The Quarterly Environmental Enforcement Summary for Q1 2015 outlines 4 Orders, 42 Administrative Sanctions, 396 Tickets, and 11 Court Convictions for a combined total of almost $105,000 in penalties.

Notable Highlights this Quarter:

Stewart Berg, owner of Double Eagle Guides and Outfitters, was convicted in provincial court for guiding a foreign client to shoot a grizzly bear outside of his allocated area in 2011. Despite repeated warnings from the ministry, Berg continued to guide in an area that was closed to grizzly hunting. Berg was fined a total of $10,925, with $9,500 of that directed to the Grizzly Bear Trust Fund to finance future projects aimed at enhancing grizzly bear habitat in British Columbia. Berg was also convicted for failing to complete and submit the required harvest declaration forms.

Justin Clark was convicted in court for possession of prohibited species without a permit. Conservation Officers attended his rental home in Mission and euthanized 46 reticulated pythons after being notified by the landlord. The pythons, some reaching 4 meters in length, are listed in the Controlled Alien Species Regulation as a “prohibited species” because of the risk they pose to public safety. Clark was fined a total of $4,600 for his illegal possession of the pythons.

In 2013, the Ministry launched the Closing the Gap initiative to improve the collection rate for environmental court penalties, which was approximately 40%. The initiative utilized a number of instruments to compel guilty parties to pay their fines, including:

- publishing the names of individuals and companies;
- cancelling hunting and angling licences;
- seizing federal tax returns, GST payments and bank accounts, and;
- placing liens on property.

The latest annual report on the Overdue Environmental Court Penalties was released in August, with a new collection rate of 91%.
