

QUARTERLY ENVIRONMENTAL ENFORCEMENT SUMMARY

2nd Quarter 2008
(April 1 - June 30)

Protecting the Splendor of our Natural Places

Highlights

The Quarterly Environmental Enforcement Summary for Q2 2008 outlines 8 orders 41 Administrative Sanctions, 463 Tickets, and 16 Court Convictions and for a combined total of almost $140,000 in penalties.

Notable Highlights this Quarter:

The Ministry of Environment introduced the Environmental (Species and Public Protection) Amendment Act which amends the Wildlife Act and the Environmental Management Act, allowing provisions for:

- increasing (doubling, on average) maximum fines and penalties for all offences under the Wildlife Act;
- filling in regulatory gaps for managing alien species and helping to protect both the public and native wildlife;
- increasing Park Ranger's authority to monitor hunting and fishing activities;
- clarifying the scope of the government's authority concerning spill response and cost recovery, and;
- improving general regulation-making powers for results-based regulations and minister's codes of practice under the Environmental Management Act.

As part of ongoing efforts to address damages to sensitive habitat areas, the following actions were reported out this quarter:

Penticton resident Victor Fitzgerald pled guilty to two charges of removing soil from his property and placing it in Okanagan Lake resulting in a substantial silt plume. The court ordered him to pay a total of $20,000, with $19,000 of that going to the Habitat Conservation Trust Foundation (HCTF). Fitzgerald's contractor – Wildstone Engineering and Construction Ltd. – also pled guilty to one count and was ordered to pay a fine of $500 plus $9,500 to the HCTF.

The Conservation Officer Service (COS) has been working with the Ministry of Tourism, Culture and the Arts and the Ministry of Forests and Range to raise public awareness about the damaging impacts that “mud-bogging” and other off-road activities can have on sensitive wetlands, grasslands, and subalpine areas. In 2007, new ticketing provisions were made available to the COS through section 46 (1.1) of the Forest and Range Practices Act. This summary highlights a total of 21 tickets issued by the COS as part of the cooperative compliance and enforcement strategy government is taking to support habitat protection.

These abandoned traps and snares resulted in the capture of two dogs on one occasion, and the death of four species of wildlife on three further occasions. Ministry staff felt that Mobbs did not have a means of managing his trapline such that the location of all trapping equipment was properly known.
