

QUARTERLY ENVIRONMENTAL ENFORCEMENT SUMMARY

2nd Quarter 2011
(April 1 - June 30)

Protecting the Splendor of our Natural Places

Highlights

The Quarterly Environmental Enforcement Summary for Q2 2011 outlines 3 orders 45 Administrative Sanctions, 240 Tickets, and 24 Court Convictions and a Community Environmental Justice Forum for a combined total of almost $430,000 in penalties.

Notable Highlights this Quarter:

A Prince George man was fined $2,500 following an investigation by Conservation Officers into a citizen's complaint of bear-baiting in a remote B.C. park. Kevin Novak pleaded guilty on May 4, 2011 in Provincial Court to one count of placing bait. Novak placed fish parts above the high-water mark, attempting to attract wildlife to an estuary in Foch-Gilttoyees Provincial Park in Douglas Channel, about 40 kilometres southwest of Kitimat. Of the $2,500 fine, $2,400 will go to the Grizzly Bear Trust Fund. Novak is also suspended from hunting for one year. "It sends a strong message that the province is concerned about the protection of bears and that when hunting occurs it is done ethically." said conservation officer Sgt. Darryl Struthers.

A Vancouver man faces combined fines of $5,000 after pleading guilty to two counts under the Wildlife Act after an appearance in Duncan Provincial Court. Sergei Sharov pleaded guilty to one count of hunting during a closed season and one count of unlawful possession of wildlife. He was fined $5,000, of which $4,500 will go to the Habitat Conservation Trust Foundation. Sharov also received a five-year recognizance, including a ban from hunting and being in contact with other hunters. In addition to the penalties imposed, the seized firearm was forfeited to the Crown.

The charges were laid after the Conservation Officer Service received a tip from a member of the public. Sharov was discovered by conservation officers with a freshly killed and field-dressed elk on the afternoon of November 9, 2008 on the north shore of Lake Cowichan. Due to conservation concerns, hunting of elk has been banned in this area for over 30 years. A co-accused, Everett Clifford Smith, remains at large and has a warrant for his arrest.

Our compliance and enforcement reporting includes orders, administrative sanctions, tickets and court convictions, covering hunting and fishing, open burning, mud bogging, dam safety, pesticide and pollution violations.
