

SUMMARY: FILE REVIEW

Of the Death of a Youth in the Care of the Director in 2019

Circumstances of the Fatality

The review examined the case files of an Indigenous youth who died while in the care of the director. The Delegated Aboriginal Agency (DAA) was providing services to the youth in relation to their transition from the director's care into the community.

Findings

The DAA collaborated with community partners and established a strong care team to support the youth. A thorough Care Plan was developed to guide the services and support provided to the youth. The youth was working toward living independently while experiencing a health issue. The DAA maintained a strong circle of support that included family members, health services, and community support networks.

Actions

No actions were required to address the findings of the review.

The review was completed in April 2020.
