

Summary: Child and Family Practice Review of the Death of a Youth in the Care of the Director in 2022

Circumstances of the Fatality

The review examined the services provided to an Indigenous youth who died. The youth received services at the time of the death.

Findings

The director assessed and planned for the youth's needs. The ministry had frequent contact with the youth, and their care team made ongoing efforts to reduce risks and enhance safety. Planning was underway to increase the youth's independence. The youth's Indigenous community was involved in planning and efforts were made to strengthen their cultural and family connections.

Actions

No actions were required to address the findings of the review.

The review was completed in July 2023.