

Summary: Child and Family Practice Review of the Death of a Youth in the Care of the Director in 2022

Circumstances of the Fatality

The review examined the services provided to an Indigenous youth who died. The youth and their family were receiving services at the time of the death.

Findings

The director planned for the youth's needs and engaged community partners to support the youth's well-being. Efforts were made to identify cultural connections. The director maintained regular contact with the youth. At times, reports were not submitted as required, although leadership was apprised of the youth's changing needs.

Actions

No actions were required to address the findings of the review.

The review was completed in March 2024.
