B.C. Indigenous Pathfinder Service

What is the B.C. Indigenous Pathfinder Service

The Ministry of Agriculture and Food is offering the B.C. Indigenous Pathfinder Service - a single source for support and referral to help navigate the relevant information, tools, and resources available to start or expand activities in Indigenous food systems, food sovereignty, food security and the food and the agriculture and food sector in the province. Staff provide wayfinding services and program referrals as required to connect people to existing programs, services and funding opportunities.

Contact us

To access this free service, email IndigenousFoodSystems@gov.bc.ca and a staff member will be in contact with you as soon as possible, normally within 24 to 48 hours. We respond to all messages.

Funding for the B.C. Indigenous Pathfinder Service is provided by the governments of Canada and British Columbia through the Sustainable Canadian Agricultural Partnership, a federal-provincial-territorial initiative.
