

INVITATION

2ND ANNUAL SPRUCE BEETLE SUMMIT SUMMIT

We invite you to join the conversation on the current spruce beetle outbreak in Omineca. This year's topics will focus on spruce beetle management strategies within Canada and the western United States in order to share lessons learned and evaluate our approach to the current challenges.

Diane Nicholls, Chief Forester, will provide introductory remarks for this conference.

Topics

- ◆ Keynote Speaker: Dr. Christopher Fettig, USDA Forest Service California:

“The rise and fall of bark beetles in the western U.S and our efforts to manage them.”

- ◆ Spruce Beetle in Alaska, Alberta, & Nova Scotia
- ◆ Working together: British Columbia's mitigation strategy
- ◆ Managing for Complexity
- ◆ Panel Discussion & Questions
