

FREP Priority Research Question (#27):

“Are cultural heritage resources being conserved, and where necessary protected for First Nations cultural and traditional activities as a result of forest practices?”

To answer this larger question, we need to know....

Are forest management planning and implementation processes meaningfully incorporating First Nations interests, and are they functioning effectively and respectfully?

PROCESS
INDICATORS

DIRECT LINK

Are effective forest management strategies and practices being implemented on the ground that effectively conserve or protect cultural heritage values on the land base?

OUTCOME
INDICATORS