Cedar Bark Fibre

What is Cedar Bark Fibre?

Cedar waste is primarily comprised of cedar bark fibre that is stripped from harvested trees when logs are being processed into timber products. Currently, BC forestry companies produce >100,000 oven dry tonnes of cedar bark fibre waste per year. Currently, forestry companies pay to dispose of residuals and a utilizing of the material is therefore an attractive product opportunity.

SOME KEY FACTS

- Current disposal costs — $110 per Od t
- Cedar bark fibre has many product applications adding up to 300% in value
- Minimum processing plant — $50,000 Od t
- Large operation — $100 Mio investment