

Wood Fibre Insulation

What is wood fibre insulation?

Wood fibre insulation is a breathable, highly insulating, sustainable high-performance insulation board made to last the lifetime of the building.

SOME KEY FACTS

- Dry process uses 94% wood fibre
- Excellent insulator
- Good acoustics properties
- Lower heat release and smoke production than extruded polystyrene foam
- No North American production