Appendix X Company Operations and Manufacturing

Canfor Corporation is a Canadian integrated forest products organisation based in Vancouver, BC. The company employs approximately 4,300 people in its wholly owned forest products operations. In addition, Canfor's affiliates employ approximately 1290 persons.

Canfor's operations can be divided into three basic segments: Pulp, Kraft Paper and Newsprint; Wood and Wood Products, including lumber, hardboard, fibre and remanufactured lumber products; and Building Materials Distribution. Canfor operates in these segments directly through its wholly owned operations and indirectly through its affiliated companies. In addition, Canfor produces specialised wood products, including baled fibre, fibre mat and moulded fibre items.

Canfor has extensive woodlands operations and manufacturing facilities in British Columbia and Alberta, and a lumber re-manufacturing plant in Washington. Canfor's products are sold in global markets. The company has marketing offices in Canada, Europe and Japan, and through its 50 per cent-owned affiliated company, Canwel Distribution Ltd., Canfor has wholesale building materials distribution centres across Canada.

Canfor Corporation is listed on the Toronto and Vancouver stock exchanges. The main operating company is Canadian Forest Products Ltd., from which the name Canfor is derived.
