

Functions of qualified persons aligned with resource project phases

QP work in lieu of authorization*	Pre-application	Submission review, Decision	Active	Compliance Verification	Post Authorization
QPs working for resource users
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Preparing plans • Conducting activities according to regulations or standards • Certification of completion, or that standards were met 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Application preparation • Plan preparation • Structure or facility design • FN consultation • Gathering and providing information • Predicting impacts 		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Environmental monitoring • Supervising activities • Training • Troubleshooting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verification that activities were completed, or carried out according to the plan , or other requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verification that activities were completed, or carried out according to the plan, or met other requirements • Expert witness
QPs working for government
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Plan preparation • Structure or facility design • FN consultation • Gathering and providing information • Predicting impacts 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expert Opinion • Predicting impacts • Peer review • Support to statutory decision-maker 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Environmental monitoring • Supervising activities • Training • Troubleshooting 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verification that activities were completed, or carried out according to the plan, or other requirements 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Verification that activities were completed, or carried out according to the plan, or met other requirements • Expert witness

*The first column is not a step in the administration of an authorization but a function carried out in lieu of an authorization.