“Where’s Walker?”

Our good pal Walker is back for his second edition of the ‘Where’s Walker’ contest! Walker will be hidden somewhere within the newsletter, so if you’re lucky enough to spot him, please email DCVCustomerSer@gov.bc.ca with the location he’s hiding in, and you will be entered in to win a prize! We will be drawing the winner at the end of the month.

Happy Hunting!

Supply Services

The Supply Services division, within the Ministry of Citizens’ Services, offers a variety of ready to use solutions available exclusively to Provincial Government and Broader Public Service clients and DCV is just one of those business lines. Please check out the services provided by the rest of the division:

Asset Investment Recovery (AIR) – providing convenient and flexible services Province wide for your surplus assets. Offering secure and auditable sales via storefront outlets and online at www.BCAuction.ca

BC Mail Plus provides mail services for government and the broader public sector. Mail Services range from production to delivery and everything in between. Scanning, ID Card Production and Household Relocation services are also available.

Crown Publications is an online shopping cart, providing easy access to government publications such as health, educational and trades materials. The Crown Publications services include managing and distributing of client inventory, marketing and collecting royalties on your behalf. The Customer Service team takes pride in providing courteous and responsive support to all customers in a professional manner, ensuring that each individual has an exceptional experience. The Queen’s Printer division works in conjunction with the many other areas of Procurement and Supply Services, ensuring your inventory management, warehousing and product distribution service needs are met.

Queen’s Printer – A centralized source for all your print and digital publishing needs. With over 100 years of experience in publishing the Queen’s Printer offers end-to-end logistic, promotional products and information solutions, in partnership with BC Mail Plus and Distribution Centre Victoria, to Ministry and Broader Public Sector clients.

Warehouse Asset Management Services (WAMS) – providing secure storage and distribution services. Often utilized in conjunction with Queens Printer and BC Mail Plus for ongoing and standalone distributions.

Each solution can be accessed as a standalone service or when your project requirements span over multiple services our built in partnerships allow the Procurement and Supply Services Branch to be your single source for all of your business solutions.

Unified Communications (UC)

What is UC?

Unified Communications (UC) refers to the integration of our existing office productivity tools (Outlook and Lync) with new Voice over Internet Protocol (VOIP) technology. Once you receive your new phone or headset, you can manage your communication tools directly from your workstation, or wherever you login with your IDIR.

The UC project supports the vision for a digital government as outlined in the OCIO Strategy 2016.

After the initial rollout of the Unified Communications, DCV will be the provider of aftermarket VOIP products such as headsets, speaker phones, etc. There are already several options available on the DCV shopping cart (even a couple listed at the beginning of the newsletter) at the following link: https://www.dcv.gov.bc.ca/Product/Listing/19555_Communications-Headsets

For more info on Unified Communications, please see the following link: <https://connect.gov.bc.ca/SitePages/Home.aspx>

Looking for Office Supplies...

STAPLES Business Advantage

DCV continues to manage the Master Standing Agreement with Staples Business Advantage Canada for the sale of office stationary supplies. Staples Advantage offers a customized online shopping cart providing ministries and broader public sector customers with competitive pricing, next day delivery (in most areas) and full customer support for all your office product needs. The government negotiated deals are an incredible buy!! Check out the website at www.eway.ca.

And as a BC Public Service employee, you can also take advantage of the same great deals when ordering office supplies for your own personal purchases. So what are you waiting for?
