1. Policy Rationale & Purpose:

Ensure that applicants applying for EMA licensure in British Columbia (B.C.) meet all of the requirements as set out in the relevant regulation.

2. Policy Scope

This policy applies to all Out-of-Province and Out-of-Country EMAs applying for licensure in B.C.

3. Policy Statement:

Canadian Applicants – As per the Agreement on Internal Trade and the EMA Regulations, all Canadian applicants must be registered or licensed as an EMA in another province in order to apply for licensure in B.C. All applicants are required to successfully complete the B.C. jurisprudence exam before a licence is issued.

Exception: If an applicant is registered or licensed in a profession that is equivalent to an EMA in B.C., then the applicant can apply for licensure in B.C. using the international process and their application package will be brought to the Board for decision.*

International Applicants – All International applicants must be registered or licensed as an EMA or equivalent in another country in order to apply for licensure in B.C. All applicants are required to successfully complete the B.C. jurisprudence exam before a licence is issued. The applicant will also be required to complete any examinations or training for any equivalency shortfalls where the Board feels that their qualifications, examinations or training are not equivalent to an EMA in B.C.

Verification of Registration Forms – all verification of registration forms submitted will expire either on the date the licence/registration expires or one year from the date received by the Branch, whichever date is earliest. Once the form has been deemed expired, the application file will be closed and the applicant will be required to reapply in full.

Note: all other required documents expire one year from the date received and the applicant file will be closed at that time.
