Policy Rationale & Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to clarify the requirements for reinstating the expired licence of a former EMA (see definitions).

If a licence is expired, the EMA is no longer licensed to practice as an EMA in British Columbia. An EMA's licence may be reinstated if it would not be an undue risk to public health or safety.

Policy Scope

This policy applies to all former EMAs that were previously licensed in the EMA FR, EMR, PCP, ITT, ACP, or CCP categories in BC.

If an EMA's licence is relinquished or expires while the licence is suspended and the EMA is not licensed in another jurisdiction, the EMA is required to complete the Removing a Licence Suspension requirements within three years of their licence suspension in order to have the licence reinstated. If the requirements are not completed within three years of the licence suspension the EMA is required to reapply for licensure under Section 2 of the EMA Regulation.

If an EMA's licence has been revoked by the Board, the EMA is required to complete the Revoked Licence – Reapplication requirements in order to have the licence reinstated.

Policy Statement:

There are different processes for reinstating an expired licence depending on if the former EMA is currently registered and practicing in another jurisdiction and/or the length of time a former EMA has been without an EMA licence in BC.

Reinstating a Licence where the EMA is currently registered and practicing in another jurisdiction

If an EMA licence has expired or was relinquished, but the EMA is registered and practicing in another jurisdiction or the EMA is a MedTech that is currently serving in the Canadian Armed Forces, the following is required:

- Complete to the Board's satisfaction a research paper on the importance of the legislation that governs EMA practice in BC and why it is important that all EMAs in BC follow the legislation that governs their practice. Please see Appendix A for the research paper guidelines.

- Complete Section A of the COPR Labour Mobility form (PDF, 288KB) for each province you are currently registered in and send it to your regulating body(s). The regulating body(s) will complete Section B and send it directly to our office.
- Submit a letter from a current employer verifying currency in practice
- Successfully complete the online jurisprudence exam
 - Obtain a BCeID. Please use only lowercase characters in your BCeID username. (If you already have a BCeID and password you may skip this step).
 - Please use your BCeID username and password to create a new account in the online learning system here (it may take up to 2 weeks to be granted access).
 - Review the Applicant Guide to the B.C. Jurisprudence Examination.
- Complete and electronically submit an Application for Licence.
- Undergo a criminal record check within 12 months of the licence application

Reinstating a Licence that has been Expired or Relinquished for One Year or Less

If an EMA licence has been expired or the EMA has not practiced the profession for one year or less, the written and jurisprudence examinations are required to determine that the former EMA is safe to practice in BC. The following is required:

- Read the BC provincial examination guidelines for PCPs and EMRs
- Obtain a BCeID. Please use only lowercase characters in your BCeID username. (If you already have a BCeID and password you may skip this step)
- Please use your BCeID username and password to create a new account in the online learning system (it may take up to 2 weeks to be granted access)
- Review the Applicant Guide to the B.C. Jurisprudence Examination
- Successfully complete the EMALB online written examination for the licence category
- Successfully complete the jurisprudence examination
- Apply for a licence (Please Note: there are fees associated with licence applications when an exam is required for the EMR, PCP and ACP licence categories)
- Undergo a criminal record check within 12 months of the licence application (If licence expiration < 90 days at the time of reinstatement application, then the Board or Board delegate may consider waiving the CRC requirement.)

Reinstating an Expired or Relinquished Licence after One year and up to Three years

If a former EMA's licence has been expired or the EMA has not practiced the profession for greater than one year, but less than three years, the practical, written and jurisprudence examinations are required to determine that the former EMA is safe to practice in BC. The following is required:

- Read the BC provincial examination guidelines for PCPs and EMRs
- Submit electronically the Request for Evaluation form
- Obtain a BCeID. Please use only lowercase characters in your BCeID username. (If you already have a BCeID and password you may skip this step)
- Please use your BCeID username and password to create a new account in the online learning system (it may take up to 2 weeks to be granted access)
- Review the Applicant Guide to the B.C. Jurisprudence Examination

- Please use your BCeID username and password to create a new account in the online learning system (it may take up to 2 weeks to be granted access)
- Review the Applicant Guide to the B.C. Jurisprudence Examination
- Successfully complete the written examination for the licence category
 - EMA FRs and EMRs – EMALB online written exam
 - PCPs – COPR entry to practice written exam
- Successfully complete the practical examination for the licence category
- Successfully complete the jurisprudence examination
- Apply for a licence (Please Note: there are fees associated with licence applications when an exam is required for the EMR, PCP and ACP licence categories)
- Undergo a criminal record check within 12 months of the licence application

Reinstating an Expired ACP Licence after 3 years

If an ACP's licence has been expired or the EMA has not practiced the profession for 3 or more years, training and examinations for the category of licence the EMA held are required to determine that the former ACP is safe to practice in BC. The following is required:

- Successfully complete a Board recognized training program for the licence category (all examinations must be completed within 1 year of training program completion)
- Read the Board examination policies
- Contact your training provider and ensure they have your consent to send your certificate to getanexam@gov.bc.ca
- Submit electronically the Request for Evaluation form
- Obtain a BCeID. Please use only lowercase characters in your BCeID username. (If you already have a BCeID and password you may skip this step)
