1. Policy Rationale & Purpose:

The purpose of this policy is to set the requirements for reapplying for licensure when an EMA's licence has been revoked by the Board as a result of the EMA having breached a term or condition of their EMA Licence in regards to failing to meet their continuing competence requirements.

2. Policy Scope

This policy applies to all former BC EMAs that were previously licensed in the EMR, PCP, ITT, ACP, or CCP categories in BC, whose licence was revoked by the board for having breached a term or condition of their licence in regards to failing to meet their continuing competence requirements.

3. Policy Statement:

An EMA whose licence has been revoked by the Board may reapply for licensure under Section 2 of the EMA Regulation. When reapplying for licensure the following is required:

- successfully complete a board recognized training program for the licence category
- apply for the examination process
- successfully complete examination requirements for the licence category within 12 months of training program completion
- apply for a licence (Please Note: there are fees associated with licence applications when an exam is required)

4. Legal Authority:

Emergency Health Services Act Section 7\(1\)\(b\)
Emergency Medical Assistants Regulation Section 9.2

5. Key Stakeholders:

- Former BC EMAs where the Licensing Board has revoked their licence
