Keeping you up to date on the latest from B.C.'s Ministry of Health

Frequently Asked Questions

A Picture of Health - The B.C. Ministry of Health Newsletter

What is A Picture of Health?

A Picture of Health is B.C.'s Ministry of Health e-newsletter focused on telling the story of the provincial health care system. Published quarterly, this online resource is aimed at keeping our health system partners, practitioners, administrators and the public up-to-date on the ministry's work to improve patient experiences and outcomes.

Why am I receiving this newsletter?

As a valuable health system partner, practitioner, administrator or member of the public, we want to help keep you informed about relevant community resources, industry news, and updates on policy as well as share links to useful tools and information from across B.C.'s health system.

How do I subscribe?

You can subscribe to A Picture of Health by clicking 'sign up today' on our homepage.

Can I share the newsletter?

Yes! You can forward the newsletter to other people you think might be interested in learning more about what we are doing in the health-care system. We would encourage them to subscribe so they never miss an update. Subscribing is free and easy. Click here and leave your email address.

How do I find previous editions of the newsletter?

All our newsletters are available online at A Picture of Health.

How often will I receive newsletters?

You'll receive an e-newsletter from the Ministry of Health once per quarter (i.e., every three months). Be sure to add MOHNewsletter@gov.bc.ca to your safe sender list so you never miss an update. This way, you'll be sure to receive our newsletter in your inbox instead of them accidentally ending up in your junk or spam folder.

How is my personal information being used?

We only use the information you give us to send our newsletter and they'll only come from MOHNewsletter@gov.bc.ca. That means you won't receive anything from us except our newsletters.
