

The Province of British Columbia, Ministry of Health (the "Ministry") has invited you to participate in the _____ (the "Project") and this Confidentiality

name of project

Acknowledgement is a requirement for your participation.

I, _____, am participating in the Project and hereby undertake:

print full name

- 1. I acknowledge that information that will be disclosed to me regarding the Project, or provided to me in subsequent communications whether in written or oral form, (collectively the "Information") is, by necessity, sensitive and confidential to the Province.
2. I acknowledge that some of the Information is proprietary and confidential and disclosure would be detrimental to the government and contrary to the public interest.
3. I will not disclose the Information, except:
(a) to another member of the Project Team;
(b) to other employees of the Province or to anyone working on the Project who has agreed to be bound under the same terms as provided by this Confidentiality Acknowledgement; or
(c) if I am required to disclose the Information in order to fulfill my obligations to the Project as directed by the Ministry as described in paragraph 4.
4. I will keep all Information strictly confidential and without the express written consent of the Ministry first being obtained, not to disclose any portion of the Information to any other person, organization, corporation or other entity, nor will I permit or suffer any of the Information to be used, divulged, given or released, to any other person, organization, corporation or other entity.
5. If any portion of this Confidentiality Acknowledgement is found to be invalid or unenforceable by law by a Court of competent jurisdiction then that portion shall be severed and the remaining portion shall remain in full force and effect.
6. The terms of this acknowledgement are in addition to any confidentiality acknowledgement requirement imposed by statute.

Exceptions to my confidentiality obligations are as follows:

- 1. if disclosure is required by a court of law;
2. if information which I have has been received from another, non-confidential source; or
3. information which has been previously confidential is subsequently publicly disclosed by another means.

Executed at _____, BC, this _____ day of _____, 2019.
