Emergency Medical Assistants are regulated by the EMA Licensing Board under the authority of the Emergency Health Services Act and the Emergency Medical Assistants Regulation. Action that may be taken by the EMA Licensing Board in response to complaints is administrative in nature. The Board uses educational measures to deal with practice issues, wherever possible. These measures may include requiring the preparation of clinical consultation(s) and retraining. Other actions that may be taken include: licence suspensions, the imposition of terms or conditions on a licence, or licence revocation. The EMA Licensing Branch is not a law enforcement agency. If you believe the conduct which gave rise to your complaint may be a crime, please report it to your local law enforcement agency immediately.
