

Prescribing Buprenorphine/Naloxone for Opioid Use Disorder

Rapid Access to Consultative Expertise (RACE) Line:

Rapidly connect with and receive treatment advice from an addictions specialist.
604.682.2344 or <http://www.raceconnect.ca/race-app>

Health Link BC

Free provincial health information and advice phone line providing information and linkage to services.

Dial 8-1-1

BCCSU Provincial Opioid Addiction Treatment Support Program

Free, online CME-accredited training on opioid agonist treatments (e.g. buprenorphine/naloxone, methadone) at: <http://www.bccsu.ca/>

BCCSU Clinical Guidance Documents & Provider Tools

A range of clinical guidance documents, provider tools, and fact sheets can be found at: www.bccsu.ca/clinical-care-guidance/

Some examples:

- Clinical guidelines for the treatment of opioid use disorder
- Did you know? Buprenorphine/Naloxone (Fact sheet)
- Letter template and quick reference guide for transferring care to a primary care provider
- Treatment and Take-Home Dosing Agreements
- Contacts and links to mental health and substance use services in each health authority

... and many more!