Duties/Responsibilities to the Property Assessment Review Panel:

Chairs/members owe the Panel they serve undivided loyalty and a commitment to making the best possible decisions.

Chairs/members must carefully adhere to these duties and take their jobs seriously to set high standards of accountability.

By signing this Profile and Declaration, you acknowledge and understand that you are bound by the following duties and responsibilities.

Duty of Care:

You have a duty of care to the Property Assessment Review Panel which means that you must exercise the degree of skill and diligence reasonably expected from an ordinary person of your knowledge and experience;

- in making decisions, you must always act in the best interests of the Panel;
- you must base your decisions upon facts and reliable information; and
- you must not act without first taking care to be properly informed.

Duty of Loyalty:

This duty embraces fairness, good faith and honesty. It means that, in all decisions, you must act in the Panel's best interests, not your own. Specifically, you must:

- * be honest in your dealings within the Panel and with others on behalf of the Panel;
- * maintain the confidentiality of information received by you in your capacity as Panel member; and
- * avoid situations where you could put yourself in a position of conflict between your own private interests and the best interests of the review panel.

Duty of Obedience:

This duty requires that you know the Property Assessment Review Panel's mission and the laws and regulations that affect the carrying-out of the mission. This duty means that you must:

- * carry out the Panel's purposes; and
- * take all necessary and reasonable measures to assure compliance with laws, regulations and policies that apply to the Property Assessment Review Panel.

PART C – CONFLICT OF INTEREST: DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

A conflict of interest exists for a panel member who has a private or personal interest which appears to influence the panel member's judgement in making decisions with the interests of the Property Assessment Review Panel.

A conflict of interest may take a number of forms:

- financial or non-financial;
- direct or indirect; and
- professional or family related.

A conflict of interest may arise from:

- Ongoing or outstanding matters before the Panel;
- Employment or board appointments;
- Professional practices including consultative services;
- directorships or other employment;
- financial interests in business enterprises or professional practices;
- share ownership;
- beneficial interests in trusts;
- private equity interests;
- real estate property interests;
- existing or proposed transactions with the Panel;
- holding elected office;
- existing professional or personal associations with the Panel;
- personal associations with other groups or organizations; and
- family relationships (a connection by blood, by marital or common law relationship, or by affinity).

Every appointee or potential appointee to the review panel must disclose any obligation, commitment, relationship or interest that might conflict or might be perceived to conflict with his or her duty or interest to the review panel.

Additional information regarding the conflict of interest assessment and the code of ethics is available in the Crown Agencies and Board Resourcing and Office General Conduct Principles for Public Appointees.

If Yes, describe any real and/or perceived conflicts of interest with the panel:

PART D – CHARTER OF EXPECTATIONS FOR APPOINTEES TO PANELS

Appointees commit to make the best possible decisions. Appointees must carefully adhere to these principles and responsibilities. They must strive for high standards of accountability and fiduciary duty.

Principles

Compliance

- Take all necessary and reasonable measures to ensure compliance with laws, regulations and policies that apply to the Panel; and
- Know the Panel's mandate.

Accountability

- Base your decisions upon facts and reliable information; and
- Properly inform yourself before taking action.

Integrity

- Ensure integrity in all dealings with and on behalf of the Panel, including via social media platforms;
- Maintain the confidentiality of information received by you in your capacity as Panel member both during and after your appointment;
- Maintain the ongoing responsibility to disclose real or perceived conflicts of interest; and
- Avoid real or perceived conflicts between your own private interests and the work of the Panel.

Responsibilities

- Be courteous and treat all parties fairly and with respect;
- Be punctual and organized;
- Identify opportunities to resolve disputes or issues and bring those opportunities to the attention of the parties at the earliest possible time, with the least cost while ensuring that all parties are treated fairly;
- Ensure that organizational and preliminary procedural matters are resolved quickly;
- Conduct effective hearings and render fair, well-reasoned decisions based on the evidence and applicable law and policy;
- Recognize and deal appropriately with situations that may involve an issue of bias or conflict of interest for the parties involved and do so in accordance with the Panel's applicable code of conduct;
- Maintain currency with respect to the justice system, including relevant legislation, policies and procedures;
- Work with agency staff and be familiar with case management practices; and
- Ensure that files are completed in a timely manner.

I certify that I have read the above Charter and agree to abide by it for the duration of my service.

I agree:
