

ATTAINABLE HOMES

How a non-profit in Calgary helps entry level home buyers achieve home ownership.

Thursday September 24 2015 |
1:30-2:30 PM PST

Summary

Attainable Homes is a Calgary non-profit that creates opportunities for affordable, entry-level home ownership.

Find out how they do it, who their target market is, and why it works.

Join Online At No Cost.

The goal of our webinars is to facilitate information sharing and examples of affordable market housing options with local governments, industry professionals, and community partners in British Columbia.

Click Here to Register.

Space is limited.

Registration ends September 22 2015.

Presenting

Marissa Toohey | Communications and Stakeholder Relations Manager | Attainable Homes Calgary Corporation

Marissa is the Communications and Stakeholder Relations Manager at Attainable Homes Calgary Corporation. Marissa is responsible for engaging aspiring homebuyers, building and development partners, communities and Government. She is currently participating in the advisory group for the Calgary Housing Affordability Strategy and is involved in the development of policy goals to help improve the availability and affordability of housing in the city.

Questions/Comments?

Click here.