Family law:

The Provincial Court Family Rules set out the steps that you must take and the forms you must complete in a family law case. These rules apply to cases in Provincial Court about matters under the Family Law Act and the Family Maintenance Enforcement Act.

You can find the Rules and Acts on the BC Laws website at www.bclaws.gov.bc.ca.

Preparing a Request to File an Agreement Form 26

Complete this form if you need to file a written agreement in Provincial Court.

A written agreement that is filed in Provincial Court under the Family Law Act is enforceable under the Act as if it were an order of the Provincial Court.

How do I enforce a written agreement?

There are different enforcement options available under the Family Law Act or the Family Maintenance Enforcement Act depending on what issues your written agreement is about.

Enforcement actions under the Provincial Court Family Rules are set out in Part – 10 Enforcement.

NOTE: If you need help with paying or receiving child support or spousal support under an agreement, you may want to contact the BC Family Maintenance Agency first to see if they can help. Visit their website at www.bcfma.ca or contact them by phone at 1-800-663-3455.

Need legal help?

It's important to understand the law and make sure you have the right information. If you don't, it can make solving your problem harder. Getting advice from a lawyer can help. You can find a lawyer through:

Filling out the form and preparing to file it

Follow the instructions in the form and include all the information that is asked for.

If you complete the form by hand, be sure it's readable.

How do I prepare the form for filing?

- print or make copies of the completed form and determination: one set for you, one set for the court, and one set for each other party

Filing the form at the registry

After you've filled out the form, you must file it at the Provincial Court Registry:

- where the existing Provincial Court case with the same parties is filed (you already have a court file number)
- nearest to where the child lives most of the time, if the case involves a child-related issue, or
- nearest to where you live if the case does not involve a child-related issue

File the form:

- electronically using the FLA Online Forms Service
- in person at the court registry
- by mail
- by email, as referenced in Notice to the Profession and Public NP 28 Current Court Operations, or
- by fax filing using the Fax Filing Cover Page Form 52

There are no fees for filing Provincial Court family documents.

Be sure to bring all copies of the documents to the registry if you are filing in person.

The registry clerk will review your form to make sure it's complete before filing it. You'll be given a copy for your records.
