Family law:

The Provincial Court Family Rules set out the steps that you must take and the forms you must complete in a family law case. These rules apply to cases in Provincial Court about matters under the Family Law Act and the Family Maintenance Enforcement Act.

You can find the Rules and Acts on the BC Laws website at www.bclaws.gov.bc.ca.

Preparing an Application for Order Prohibiting the Relocation of a Child Form 16

Complete this form if you need an order prohibiting the relocation of a child under section 69 of the Family Law Act.

[Section 69 \[orders respecting relocation\]](#) of the Family Law Act applies if:

- a guardian wants to change the location of their residence or a child's residence that can reasonably be expected to have a significant impact on the child's relationship with another guardian or person having a significant role in the child's life; and
- there is an existing written agreement or court order about parenting arrangements for the child.

Note: An application prohibiting the relocation of a child under section 69 of the Family Law Act must be filed within 30 days after receiving written notice that the guardian plans to relocate the child [s. 68 Family Law Act].

What if there is no written agreement or court order about parenting arrangements for the child?

If so, you may be able to apply for an order under section 46 [changes to child's residence if no agreement or order] of the Family Law Act using an Application About a Priority Parenting Matter Form 15 or an Application About a Family Law Matter Form 3 to determine the parenting arrangements for a child including the location of the child's residence.

Filling out the form and preparing to file it

Make sure you follow the instructions in the form and include all the required information.

If you complete the form by hand, be sure it's readable.

How do I prepare the form for filing?

- collect the application, a copy of the existing written agreement or court order about parenting arrangements, and a copy of the notice of relocation, if applicable
- print or make copies of all documents: one set for you, one set for the court, and one set for each other party
- staple or secure each package of documents together

Filing the application at the registry

After you've filled out your form, you must file it at the Provincial Court Registry:

- where the existing Provincial Court case with the same parties is filed (you already have a court file number), or
- nearest to where the child lives most of the time

File the form:

- electronically using the FLA Online Forms Service
- in person at the court registry
- by mail
- by email, as referenced in Notice to the Profession and Public NP 28 Current Court Operations, or
- by fax filing using the Fax Filing Cover Page Form 52

There are no fees for filing Provincial Court family documents.

Be sure to bring all copies of the documents to the registry if you are filing in person.

The registry clerk will review your package to make sure it's complete before filing it. They'll give you a copy for your records along with a copy for the other party.

Serving the application

Serve a copy of the application on each other party.

They must be served with at least 7 days' notice of the date and time of the appearance unless the court has ordered something different. This means there must be at least 7 days between the date the application document is served and the date and time of the court appearance.

The application can be served by ordinary service to the address of service for each party. Their address for service is the address they have provided to the court.

A party who does not have an address for service must be served by personal service. An adult (at least 19 years old) who is not a party must hand-deliver the documents to the party to be served.

See the guidebook if you need more information about serving the application.

You may need to prove service of the document. The person serving the documents must complete a Certificate of Service Form 7 to prove service. You must attach a copy of the documents to the Certificate of Service. Remember to make a copy before the documents are served.

What if I can't find the other party or they are avoiding service?

If you're in this situation, you can apply to the court to allow you to use an alternative method of service. You must complete and file an Application About a Case Management Order Without Notice or Attendance Form 11.

Attending the court appearance

A judge can make decisions based only on the information presented by the parties. In addition to your application, you can provide evidence including any additional affidavit(s) and spoken evidence provided in court.

If you can't attend court using the method of attendance set out in your application, you can request the court's permission to attend using a different method of attendance by filing an Application for Case Management Order without Notice or Attendance Form 11.

Can I get help in another language?

Free spoken-language interpreters for people who do not speak English and visual language interpreters for people who are deaf or hard of hearing are available for all family law court appearances.

It's important to let court registry staff know as soon as possible that you need an interpreter. If they can't arrange an interpreter in time, the judge may have to re-schedule your case.

For most things that go on outside the courtroom, you'll need to find your own interpreter. Some people ask a friend or family member. Others hire a professional interpreter.

- There is an additional party.
The additional party's full name is: _____
Their date of birth (dd/mmm/yyyy) is: _____

i The other party is any other parent or guardian of the child(ren).

Part 2 | Information about children

3. This application is about the following child(ren) that I am a guardian of:

Child's full name	Child's date of birth (dd/mmm/yyyy)	Child is currently living with

4. I understand that I must consider the best interests of the child with respect to each order I am asking the court to make about the child. The "best interests of the child" is a legal test used to decide what would best protect the child's physical, psychological, and emotional safety, security and well-being [Family Law Act s. 37].

 For more information about best interests of the child, see the guidebook.

Part 3 | Notice of the application

5. I understand I must give notice of this application to each other party, including any other person who may be directly affected by the order.
To give notice, they must be served with the application and supporting documents at least 7 days before the date of the court appearance unless the court allows the application to be made without notice or with less than 7 days' notice.

 For more information about serving court documents, see the guidebook.

Part 4 | About your court appearance

For registry or judicial case manager use only

The application, which requires a court appearance, will be heard by the court on _____ at _____ a.m./p.m.

date

in person at

_____ court location

by another method of attendance, as specified

Do not attend the courthouse in person. The registry will send within 24 hours before the hearing date noted above the link to connect by MS Teams, including a dial-in conferencing number to be used by any party that is unable to use MS Teams or has problems with their video connection. If you have not provided your email address or telephone number to the registry on your Notice of Address Change (Form 46), you must contact the registry to obtain the MS Teams conference information.

The registry or judicial case manager will work with you to schedule a date for the court appearance and will fill in the actual date and method of attendance on the form. Be prepared to talk about your availability if there are options for dates.

NOTE TO THE OTHER PARTY:

If you do not attend court on the date and time scheduled for the court appearance, the court may make an order in your absence.

You may also choose to file a written response in reply to the application in Form 19 Written Response to Application.

The court must be satisfied that:

- the proposed relocation is being made in good faith,
- the relocating guardian has proposed reasonable and workable arrangements to preserve the relationship between the child and the child's other guardians, persons who are entitled to contact with the child, and other persons who have a significant role in the child's life, and
- the relocation is in the best interests of the child.

You can make an application under s. 69 of the Family Law Act only if there is an existing written agreement or court order about parenting arrangements [s. 65 Family Law Act].

You must attach a copy of the agreement or order to this application for filing.

You must attach a copy of the notice of relocation, if applicable, to this application for filing.
