

Preparing a Guardianship Affidavit

Form 5 Provincial Court Family Rules

Complete this form if you are making an application for an order about guardianship of a child under section 51 [orders respecting guardianship] of the Family Law Act, including an application for a consent order for guardianship.

Before you can complete the affidavit, you must complete the following background checks referenced in the form:

- a Ministry of Children and Family Development record check
- a protection order record check from the Protection Order Registry, and
- a criminal record check

To get a criminal record check, ask at the police station or RCMP detachment in your community.

To get the Ministry of Children and Family Development and Protection Order Registry record checks, you must fill out:

- a Section 51 - Consent for Child Protection Record Check, and
- a Request for Protection Order Registry Search.

Give them to the court registry where you will be filing your application. These documents must be filed with an Application About a Family Law Matter Form 3 that includes an application for an order about being appointed as a guardian or with your counter application to be appointed as a guardian. The registry will let you know when the results from the record checks come in. The registry will then give you copies to attach to your affidavit. The record checks must be dated within 60 days before the date that the record check is filed.

The court can make an interim order for guardianship of a child without the completed affidavit and record checks. The interim order will last up to 90 days. During this time, you must get the background checks and fill out and file the affidavit.

The Guardianship Affidavit Form 5 must be filed and served on each other party at least 7 days before the date set for the hearing of the application if no trial preparation conference is scheduled, or at least 7 days before the date of the trial preparation conference if one is.

The affidavit must be sworn or affirmed no more than 7 days before it is filed.

What you need to get started

Try to collect as much information as possible before you start to complete the form.

You will need:

- birth dates, names, and other related information about the child or children
- copies of any court orders you already have
- Ministry of Child and Family Development records check
- Protection Order Registry protection order records check
- criminal records check
- information about any criminal offences and/or charges

Step 1: Complete the Guardianship Affidavit form ☐

This form is available online at www.gov.bc.ca/court-forms or at any Provincial Court Registry.

You can complete the form online and print it for filing. You can also complete it by hand. If you complete it by hand, be sure it's readable. Registry staff and staff at any Justice Access Centre or Family Justice Centre can help answer questions about the forms, but they cannot help complete your forms or give advice about legal problems. If you need help filling in the forms and do not have a lawyer, ask the court registry staff or staff at the Justice Access Centre or Family Justice Centre to refer you to someone who can help.

You need to complete and file the main part of the form and only the schedules that apply to your application.

Follow the instructions in the form. You will be given space to provide information that is important to support your application.

To prepare the form for filing:

- print or make copies of all documents: one set for you, one set for the Court, and one set for each other party
- staple each package of documents together
- bring all copies to the court registry for filing or send by mail or by fax filing using the Fax Filing Cover Page Form 52

Step 2: Get the affidavit sworn/affirmed and signed with a commissioner for taking affidavits ☐

The affidavit must be sworn or affirmed no more than 7 days before it is filed.

The affidavit must be signed with commissioner for taking affidavits. They will need to see a piece of your photo ID and they will ask you to promise that the information in the application affidavit is true.

Lawyers and notaries are all commissioners for taking affidavits. The court registry also has staff who are commissioners for taking affidavits who can swear or affirm your affidavit for free.

If you cannot get the document sworn or affirmed before the document is filed, the unsworn document can be filed if you will be available to swear or affirm that the contents of the document are true during your court appearance.

Step 3: File the Guardianship Affidavit form at the Provincial Court Registry ☐

You must file at the Provincial Court Registry where the existing Provincial Court case is filed.

The registry clerk will review your package to make sure it is complete before filing it. You will be given a copy for your records.

There are no fees for filing Provincial Court family documents.

Step 4: Serve a copy of the affidavit on each other party ☐

Service is the act of giving or leaving documents with the required person. It is important that each other party know that a case is going on, are aware of what step is being taken, and are given a chance to tell their side of the story to the court.

The Guardianship Affidavit must be served to the address of service of each other party in any of the following ways:

- by leaving the documents at the party's address for service
- by mailing the documents by ordinary mail to the party's address for service
- by mailing the documents by registered mail to the party's address for service
- if the party's address for service includes an email address, by emailing the document(s) to that email address
- if the party's address for service includes a fax number, by faxing the documents to that fax number

A party's address for service is the address they have provided to the court. A party who does not have an address for service must be served by leaving a copy of the application document(s) directly with the person (this is called personal service).

Personal service requires that an adult (at least 19 years old) who is not a party hand deliver the documents to the party to be served.

The court may need proof you had the documents served. The person serving the documents must complete a Certificate of Service Form 7 so that you can prove service of the documents took place. You must attach a copy of the documents to the Certificate of Service. Remember to make a copy before the documents are served.

Tips for Completing the Form:

Registry location and court file number –

Copy this information from the top right corner of the Notice to Resolve a Family Law Matter or other document filed with the court.

Information about the person completing the affidavit –

An affidavit must be in the first person (from the writer's point of view, using "I") and include the name, occupation and address of the person swearing or affirming the affidavit. Provide this information in the field provided on the form.

If you are a party to the case, you can include your address for service. If you do not live at the address for service you can add 'care of' or 'c/o' to show it is not your personal address. The address does not have to be the address where you live but should be clear if that is the case. For example, if you are a child's teacher making the affidavit, you may choose to use the school address instead of your home address.

Information about the child(ren) –

Include each child you are asking to become a guardian of and provide the details required by the table including:

- the child's full name - usually their name from their birth certificate, unless they have had a legal name change
- the child's date of birth by indicating mmm/dd/yyyy example: Jan 12 2001 or January 12, 2001 if the child's birthday is not known indicate Unknown
- the name(s) of the child's current guardian(s)
A parent is a child's guardian if:

- they lived with the other parent when the child was born,
- they care for the child regularly, but have never lived with the child, or
- in an assisted reproduction situation, they are named as a parent in a pre-conception agreement, and
- there is no agreement or order that says they are not a guardian.

A parent can become a guardian of a child through a court order or by an agreement with all the other guardians of the child. A non-parent can become a guardian through a court order.

- the name(s) of the child's parent(s) who are not current guardian(s)

Your date of birth –

Provide your date of birth in the field provided by indicating mmm/dd/yyyy example: Jan 12 1977 or January 12, 1977

Relationship with the child(ren) –

Provide the details required by the table. Use whatever wording best describes your relationship to the child and to describe the length of your relationship with the child.

Caring for the child(ren) –

Describe in your own words how the child(ren) are to be cared for by you. You do not need to use any special wording. The key is to be clear about how they will be cared for.
