

NOTICE OF CLAIM

PROVINCIAL COURT OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

MAKING A CLAIM

Step 1

COMPLETE the NOTICE OF CLAIM. Please print clearly and firmly. There are 5 copies, so be sure all copies are legible. If you accessed this form from the Government of BC website, you may also complete it using the computer and then print all 5 copies. *NOTE: This form can be completed online using the Filing Assistant <https://justice.gov.bc.ca/cso/>. For more help, there are guides called "What is Small Claims" and "Making a Claim."

Forms and guides can be found at the Government of BC website:
www.gov.bc.ca/smallclaims

Step 2

FILE the NOTICE OF CLAIM by taking or mailing it to the small claims registry. If you are making a claim against a company or a society, you must also file a printout of a company search showing the most recent address of the registered office of the company on file with the Registrar of Companies or the most recent address and delivery address of the society on file with the Registrar of Companies. The fee for filing is $100 for claims up to and including $3,000, or $156 for claims over $3,000. The staff will check the form and, when it is accepted for filing, apply the registry stamp, add on filing and service fees, and assign a file number. Then they will return the copies you need for your records and for serving on the defendant.

Step 3

SERVE each defendant named in the NOTICE OF CLAIM with a copy of the document and a blank copy of the REPLY form. The purpose is to be sure the defendants know they are being sued, and what the case is about. For more help with service there is a guide called "Serving Documents".

AND THEN if the defendants file a reply, the court registry will send you a copy, and set a date for a settlement conference. If no Reply is filed at the court registry within the time limit on the NOTICE OF CLAIM, you may apply for a DEFAULT ORDER. You will have to file a certificate of service to prove the NOTICE OF CLAIM has been served.

FROM:

You must be sure that the address you give is correct because this is where the registry will send any further notices or information to you. If your address changes at any time please notify the small claims registry and all parties to the lawsuit.

TO:

Are you sure you have used the proper name? If you wish to sue a company or a society, you can get the legal name from the printout of the company search.

Is there more than one defendant? If so, put both names (side by side) in the space given. Are you sure the claim(s) are a result of the same transaction or event?

WHAT HAPPENED?

You do not need to tell everything about your case here. You must tell just enough to let the defendant know what the case is about. Keep your description brief. You will have a full opportunity to present all the facts and provide supporting documents at a settlement conference or trial.

WHERE? WHEN?

A notice of claim must be filed at the small claims registry nearest to where
a) the defendant lives or carries on business, OR
b) where the transaction or event that resulted in the claim took place.

If the case is about a breach of contract (overdue credit account for example), tell where the contract was made or account opened or where the payments were to be made or sent.

HOW MUCH?

If your claim is made up of several parts, separate them here and show the amount you are claiming for each part.

For example:

| | |
|-----------------------------------|------------------|
| a) Amount owing on unpaid invoice | $$$$$$$$ |
| b) Interest under the contract | $$$$$$$$ |

The defendant might agree with part of your claim if you show its separate parts.

The most you may claim in Provincial Court of British Columbia (Small Claims Court) is $35,000.00, including the amount of money claimed AND the value of any goods or services claimed. This does not include interest and expenses.

If your claim is for more than $35,000.00 and you wish to file in this court, just say in this section "I am abandoning the amount over $35,000.00". Otherwise, you should file your claim in Supreme Court. If you choose to abandon part of your claim you cannot sue for that part later.

Are you asking for something besides money (eg. recovery of goods)? If so, fill that in and show the value but do not add the dollar amount for that part to the Total Claimed.
