Definitions

"Director" – the director of police services referred to in section 39 (1) of the Police Act.

"Conducted energy weapon“ or “CEW” – a weapon designed to use a conducted electrical current in order to incapacitate a person, or to generate compliance through pain.

"Intermediate weapon” – a device intended or designed to be used as a weapon, but for which the use is not intended or likely to cause serious injury or death. Impact weapons, aerosols and conducted energy weapons fall within this category. Intermediate weapons may also be referred to as less-lethal weapons.

“Officer” - a constable appointed under the Police Act or an enforcement officer appointed under s. 18.1 of the Police Act.

Standards

The chief constable, chief officer, or commissioner:

Approved intermediate weapons

(1) Must ensure the intermediate weapons carried or used by officers of their police force have been approved by the director (see also BCPPS 1.3.2 Approved CEW Models).

(2) May, notwithstanding Standard (1) above, permit an officer to carry and use an intermediate weapon other than a CEW if the weapon was in the operational inventory of their police force or another British Columbia police force on or before January 30, 2012 (see also BCPPS 1.3.2 Approved CEW Models).

Maintenance of intermediate weapons

(2.1) Must ensure that each intermediate weapon in the inventory of their police force is maintained in good working order.

(2.2) Must ensure that each intermediate weapon is securely stored when not in use.
Training, qualification, and requalification

(3) Must ensure an officer successfully completes a training course and is qualified to use an intermediate weapon before the officer may be authorized to carry and use that weapon under Standard (1) or (2) above (see also BCPPS 3.2.1 CEW Operator Training).

(4) Must ensure any officer authorized to carry and use an intermediate weapon under Standard (1) and or (2) above is requalified to use that weapon at least once every three years unless otherwise required by BCPPS dealing specifically with that intermediate weapon (see also BCPPS 3.2.1 CEW Operator Training).

(5) Must ensure that written records are maintained of the intermediate weapons training and requalification courses completed by each officer in the police force.

Off duty carrying of intermediate weapons

(5.1) Must ensure that officers carry their issued intermediate weapons only when on assigned duty, unless otherwise authorized in writing or described in policy.

Policies and procedures

(6) Must ensure policies and procedures are consistent with these BC Provincial Policing Standards.
