

CRIMINAL JUSTICE BRANCH, MINISTRY OF ATTORNEY GENERAL
CROWN COUNSEL POLICY MANUAL

ARCS/ORCS FILE NUMBER: 56100-00	EFFECTIVE DATE: March 15, 2004	POLICY CODE: INT 1
SUBJECT: Intermittent Sentences		CROSS-REFERENCE:

POLICY

Crown Counsel should consider the following factors in determining whether to support an intermittent sentence:

- 1. An intermittent sentence may be inappropriate if the offender has recently served a sentence for a similar offence.
- 2. Offenders with a history of violence, sexual offences, escape, unlawfully at large, breaches of probation/recognizance/conditional sentences, and failing to appear, are generally unsuitable candidates for intermittent sentences.

If the offender makes a claim of employment or enrolment in an educational program, Crown Counsel should consider whether to take the position that the offender should provide confirmation to the court.

RCMP facilities: If the court is considering an intermittent sentence in an RCMP jurisdiction, Crown Counsel should refer to appendix A and advise the court if the local RCMP detachment is unable to accommodate an intermittent sentence.

If necessary, Crown Counsel should be prepared to assist the court by consulting with the Officer in Charge of the detachment and the local probation office as to a possible alternative for service of the intermittent sentence.

DISCUSSION

Some smaller RCMP detachments have inadequate facilities to accommodate the prisoner's needs, as outlined in appendix A.

Crown Counsel is often the only representative of the executive arm of government in the courtroom and, although arguably this is an administrative matter, it is important to assist the court in the efficient administration of justice.

APPENDIX A

The attached list of RCMP detachments should be read as follows:

1. Those detachments which are able to accommodate intermittent prisoners are shown in BOLD.
2. Those detachments which are able to accommodate a limited number of intermittent prisoners have been UNDERLINED.
3. Those detachments which are unable to accommodate intermittent prisoners are shown in ITALICS.
4. Those detachments that have amalgamated and/or changed names have been highlighted.
