Criminal Justice Branch Announces Decision of Special Prosecutor

Victoria – A review conducted by independent Special Prosecutor John Waddell, Q.C. has resulted in the laying of criminal charges against Ronald Danderfer, Dr. Jonathan Burns and James Roy Taylor.

Mr. Waddell, a senior Victoria lawyer, was appointed on April 18, 2008 by Robert W.G. Gillen, Q.C., the Assistant Deputy Attorney General for the Province of British Columbia, following a request from the RCMP for a Special Prosecutor, and in light of Mr. Danderfer's senior position in the B.C. Public Service at the time of the alleged offences.

Mr. Gillen received Mr. Waddell's charge assessment report on February 4, 2010 and has accepted his charging recommendations. As a result an Information containing a total of 16 counts was sworn and filed in Provincial Court in Victoria on March 4, 2010. A copy of this information is attached to this statement. It is anticipated that the first scheduled court appearance in the matter will occur on April 7, 2010 in Victoria.

One set of charges arises out of alleged circumstances surrounding Dr. Burns' dealings with Ronald Danderfer, then an Assistant Deputy Minister with the Ministry of Health, and Dr. Burns' role as a consultant to the Ministry of Health between October 2004 and July 2007. Other charges stem from allegations relating to Dr. Burns' dealings with James Roy Taylor, then manager of Network Services with the Fraser Health Authority, between August 2003 and July 2007.

Mr. Waddell will now take conduct of the prosecution of these charges, in keeping with the original mandate which he was granted. Decisions with respect to the timing of the swearing of charges and the release of this Media Statement were made by the Special Prosecutor taking into account the schedules of the lead investigator and counsel for the accused. The Special Prosecutor has approved the release of this Statement.

As the matter is now before the court it is not appropriate to release additional information about the alleged circumstances or comment further at this time.
