Charges Laid In Mushroom Farm Investigation

Victoria - The Criminal Justice Branch of the Ministry of Attorney General today announced that charges under the Workers Compensation Act and the Occupational Health and Safety Regulations have been laid against two companies and four individuals, following an investigation into an incident on September 5, 2008 at a mushroom farm and composting plant in Langley. Three individuals died and two others suffered injury when overcome by gas in an enclosed space at the facility.

An Information charging A-1 Mushroom Substratum Ltd., H. V. Truong Ltd., Ha Qua Truong, Vy Tri Truong, Van Thi Truong and Thinh Huu Doan was sworn in Provincial Court in Surrey this morning. A copy of the sworn Information is attached to this Media Statement.

The two corporations are charged as employers. The four individuals are charged either as directors or officers of the corporations, owners of a workplace or as supervisors of workers employed at the site.

As this matter is now before the court further information with respect to the circumstances cannot be released at this time.
