BC Prosecution Service announces position available in the Prosecution Support Unit

Victoria – The BC Prosecution Service (BCPS) announces a posting for a permanent full-time position in the Prosecution Support Unit of the Criminal Appeals and Special Prosecutions section.

We are looking to hire a hard working, resilient, and fair-minded courtroom lawyer, with good common sense, solid experience, strong interpersonal skills, and practical life experience working and dealing with people from diverse groups, backgrounds, and circumstances.

The permanent full-time position is available for a candidate with mid- to senior-level criminal law experience. Flexible work options are available, up to three days per week at home, subject to an approved telework agreement. The position can be based out of Vancouver or Victoria, and travel within the province is a requirement.

The closing date for the competition is April 28, 2026. An eligibility list may be established to fill future vacancies. Further details can be found at this link:
