

Resources—Videos About Human Trafficking

The following is a list of easily accessible documentaries and videos that are useful learning resources for community members.

Excluding Avenue Zero, all the videos can be accessed for free online.

Avenue Zero

Documentary, 2010 (52 mins)

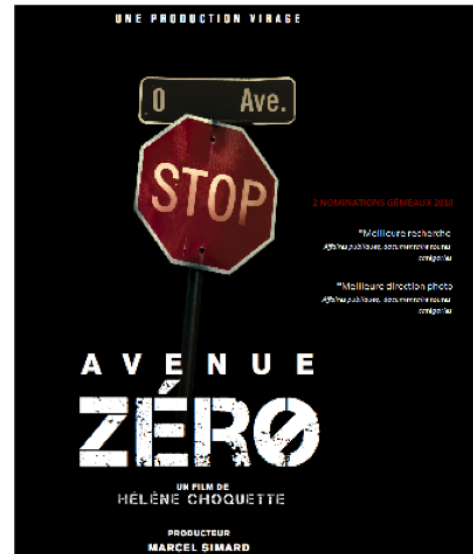

Avenue Zero, produced by Les Productions Virage Inc., explores the world of human trafficking in Canada. The film includes first-hand accounts of victims' experiences, and candid interviews with experts and community service providers in the field.

Watch the Trailer on YouTube:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=98WUTNlbLtE>

Order DVD:

<http://onf-nfb.gc.ca/en/our-collection/?idfilm=57641>

National Association of Friendship Centres' (NAFC) Public Service Announcements (PSAs): YouTube channel, 2014 (approx. 1 min each)

Produced by the National Association of Friendship Centres (NAFC), these four Public Service Announcement videos were created by Aboriginal youth across Canada with the support of the NAFC and Public Safety Canada. The short videos focus on spreading awareness about the issue of human trafficking of Aboriginal peoples in Canada.

Watch the PSAs on YouTube:

<http://www.youtube.com/user/NAFCANCA>

Hope for the Sold presents 'Enslaved and Exploited: The Story of Sex Trafficking in Canada'

Documentary, 2009 (46 mins)

This documentary focuses on the global issue of sex trafficking of women and children and includes interviews of victims, researchers, law enforcement, and government officials. It is an excellent learning resource for the general public and for professionals working in the field of human trafficking. Released by Hope for the Sold, and funded by the Millennium Scholarship Foundation.

Note: Disclosure of some real-life accounts of trafficking that can be graphic in auditory content. Viewer discretion is advised.

Watch on YouTube:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=kothPyoyvDE>

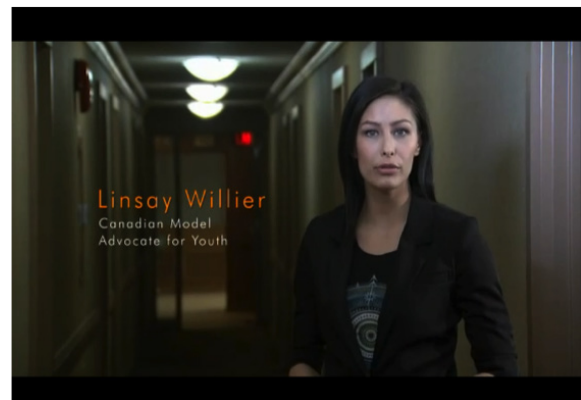

ACT Alberta Public Service Announcement PSA (3 mins)

A short informational video released by ACT Alberta and funded by the Alberta Civil Forfeiture Fund on human trafficking for the general public. It depicts three scenarios of human trafficking including international sex trafficking, labour trafficking, and domestic sex trafficking respectively. The video explores actions that can be taken to prevent and address human trafficking.

Watch on YouTube:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=60wBltdr7s>

Break the Silence (Canadian Version)

Music Video with Trafficking Statistics (4 mins)

A short video that uses an original song dramatized by a powerful contemporary dance performance, to foster awareness within the general public about domestic sex trafficking in Canada. The video also provides statistical information about three real-life victims of domestic sex trafficking.

Watch on YouTube:

<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9aJS0lcjByM>

