

Intergenerational Program Showcase Presenters
Active Aging Symposium 2008
Thursday, June 5, 2008
Vancouver, BC

1. Intergenerational Landed Learning at UBC Farm

- retired 'farm friends' teach school children about gardens and the environment

Dr. Jolie Mayer-Smith
Associate Professor and Chair Science Education
Department of Curriculum Studies
Faculty of Education
2125 Main Mall - University of British Columbia
Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z4
Jolie.mayer-smith@ubc.ca
www.cust.educ.ubc.ca/landedlearningproject/index.htm
Phone: 604-822-5293
Fax: 604-822-4714

2. Cordova Bay Community Place

- seniors and school children share one soon-to-be-expanded facility

Michael Phillips
Cordova Bay 55 Plus Association
5238 Cordova Bay Road
Victoria, BC V8Y 3C8
phillips.m@shaw.ca
250-658-2702

3. Using Gaming Technology to Bridge the Generation Gap

- teens and seniors bond through virtual sports and other technologies

Don McLeod
Total Connect
#303 – 7337 – 137 Street
Surrey, BC V3W 1A4
don@connectionsgroup.com
www.totalconnect.com
604-726-3641 x103

4. Perspective on Coordinating Volunteers and Building Community Partnerships

- various ideas for intergenerational programming which add quality to end-of-life care

Susan Granger, Director of Therapeutic Activation
Langley Lodge
5451 – 204 Street
Langley, BC V3A 5M9
sgranger@langleylodge.org
www.langleylodge.org
604-530-2305

5. Cooking with Grandma the Nutritious Old Fashion Way

- a simple routine yields great benefits for youth, elders and the community at large

Pat Thomson, President
Rossland Senior Citizens Association Branch
Patthomson@moose-mail.com
250 362-5795

6. Projects that Bridge Families, Friends and Loved Ones with Elders in Care

- a residential care coordinator talks about special projects that make a difference

Carol Oberg
Special Projects Coordinator
George Derby Centre
7550 Cumberland Street
Burnaby, BC V3N 3X5
carol@ourelders.ca
coberg@georgederbycentre.ca
www.georgederbycentre.ca
604-521-2676 local 482

7. Grand Pals

- seniors and school children meet, play, learn and work together

Kevin McKay, Recreation Leader
Century House
620 Eighth Street
New Westminster, BC V3M 3S2
kmckay@newwestcity.ca
www.newwestcity.ca
604-519-1069

8. Laughter + Pet Therapies

- look to the simple things for seniors and youth programs

Sandra Croley
Inglewood Care Centre
725 Inglewood Avenue
West Vancouver, BC V7T 1X5
scroley@inglewoodcarecentre.com
www.inglewoodcarecentre.com
604-922-9394

9. Parenting Guidelines for Indo-Canadian Communities

- groups work together to bridge parents, grandparents and children

Daljit Badesha
DiverseCITY
#1107 – 7330 – 137 Street
Surrey, BC V3W 1A3
DBadesha@dcrs.ca
info@dcrs.ca
www.dcrs.ca
(604) 880-6014
(604) 597-0205

10. The Meadows School Project in Vernon

- a full immersion program partners grade 5 + 6 students with elders in retirement

Sharon MacKenzie, educator
Kidston Elementary School
12101 Linden
Coldstream, BC V1B2H3
sharonmackenzie@gmail.com
250-308-7892

11. Intergenerational Centre for Action Learning – The Intergenerational Project (TIP)

- Increasing capacity for healthy age relations

Elizabeth Anderson, TIP Project Manager
Intergenerational Centre for Action Learning
2435 Wayburne Crescent
Langley, BC V2Y 1B7
mail@ical.com
elizabeth@ical.ca
www.ical.ca
604-514-1188
1-877-776-6878