

PREVENTION OF VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN WEEK

2021 EVENT CALENDAR

APRIL
11-17

See below two events taking place this year during Prevention of Violence Against Women Week:

Province-wide

Preventative Measures on Violence Against Women

Pam Penner from the Justice Institute of British Columbia will join MOSAIC in having a conversation around the prevalence of violence against women, knowing one's rights, guidance on how to have healthy boundaries, self care strategies, as well as helpful resources and tips.

Where: Zoom (link will be available after registration through email)

When: April 14, 2021 (10AM-12PM)

Contact: To register, please contact Rena Kim at rkim@mosaicbc.org.

Province-wide

Launch of the BCSTH 2020 24 Hour Census Report

In recognition of Prevention of Violence Against Women Week, the BC Society of Transition Houses (BCSTH) is launching the 2020 BCSTH 24 Hour Census Report. The 24 Hour Census is BCSTH's initiative that documents the daily work of their members, by counting the number of individuals served by Transition, Second and Third Stage, Safe Homes, and PEACE programs in BC in a single day.

Where: Virtual; the report will be available on www.bcsth.ca and social media

When: April 11, 2021

Contact: For more information, please contact Louise Godard at louise@bcsth.ca or Nicky Bowman at nicky@bcsth.ca.