National Restorative Justice Symposium 2021

The 2021 National Restorative Justice Symposium (NRJS) is an opportunity to convene a national gathering of practitioners, researchers and academics, community members, justice professionals, policy and law makers, educators, other experts and stakeholders united in the desire to enable as many people as possible to learn about the practice, principles, and values of RJ. The theme of this year's symposium is Unique Expressions of Restorative Justice Practices. Similar to last year, the goals of the symposium are to amplify, invite, and model (AIM) restorative justice.
