WEEKLY INCIDENT REPORT Month Jun 26 – July 02, 2017

BODY RECOVERY

On 01 July, there was a body floating down the Fraser River 10 miles North of Lillooet. Lillooet Rescue and Pemberton SAR responded to locate and recover the body at RCMP request.

DANGEROUS GOODS

On 28 June 2017, there was an explosion in the parking lot of Parkland Fuel Corp while crews were conducting a truck to truck transfer of gasoline. Fire and RCMP were on scene for most of the morning. The Ministry of Environment Response Officer (MOE RO) raised the incident to Code 2 (urgent status) due to the potential for pollution and due to heightened media attention.

On 29 June 2017, Nanaimo Fire Department reported that they were responding due to high level readings (200 parts per million) of ammonia at the curling rink on Wall Street, in Nanaimo. The MOE RO raised the incident to Code 2 (urgent status) but downgraded not long after when responders confirmed that no ammonia leak had occurred. There had been a power outage that affected the whole building.

On 30 June 2017, Ministry of Environment and COS (Conservation Officer Service) were made aware of a fish kill at a fish hatchery on Coast Meridian Road in Port Coquitlam. Ministry of Environment raised the incident to a Code 2 (urgent status) due to the high volume of fish killed and the damage to the fish population.

On 30 June 2017, Ministry of Environment was notified of a small plane that entered Courtenay Creek near Courtenay, BC. Ministry of Environment raised the incident to a Code 2 (urgent status) due to the social media presence this incident was gathering. Incident was then immediately downgraded to Code 1.

INTERFACE FIRE

On 26 June an interface fire, burning near Skaha Lake (K50392) on Eastside Road towards North Okanagan Falls in the Okanagan Similkameen Regional District (OSRD), resulted in the evacuation of 2 homes.

On 28 June, an incident was opened due to a grass fire that started on east side of Cawston, and ended up in Keremeos (K50434) on 27 June. ESS from the OSRD responded to provide a reception centre for the displaced occupants of eight homes. Most residents were from the Lower Similkameen Indian Band.
