DANGEROUS GOODS

On 18 July, a tanker truck crashed and rolled 50 metres down an embankment along Highway 3, just south of Morrissey Road. A tank loaded with Calcium Chloride cracked open and spilled along with diesel from the truck's saddle tanks, to the embankment and possibly into the Elk River. The incident was raised to Code 2 (urgent status) by the Ministry of Environment Response Officer (MOE RO) who attended the site. The product was determined to have no detrimental effects to aquatic life and there were no concerns for health impacts to the water course. The incident was downgraded to Code 1.

On 18 July, a barge sunk near Strachan Point in Howe Sound, West Vancouver. The barge contained up to 1,000 litres of gasoline, hydraulic fluid and oil. The incident was raised to Code 2 (urgent status) by the MOE RO due to concerns that product could possibly come up from the barge and reach the shore. The barge was raised with minimal release of pollutants, then it was towed to safe moorage at Snug Cove where remaining mixed oil and fuel were removed.
