

Class C Percentage Draw Gaming Licence Application Guide

This guide will provide you with step-by-step instructions on how to complete an application for a Class C gaming event licence using the Gaming Online Service (GOS). Some common errors will be pointed out; however, you are responsible for reading and understanding the Standards and Procedures for your event before applying.

Applying for a licence and reading through this document should take 15-30 minutes.

Throughout the application process, you'll see clickable 'Help' or 'Question Mark' icons:  . Clicking these symbols will open another window with more information.

The 'Help' icons located at the top right-hand corner of each screen will show you general government help information. The 'Help' icons located within the Online Service pages will give you additional information and/or tips related to the subject matter at hand.

The Standards and Procedures can be found on the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch website at <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/sports-culture/gambling-fundraising/gambling-licence-fundraising/documents-forms>.

Additional information can be found in the FAQ at <https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/sports-culture/gambling-fundraising/gambling-licence-fundraising/questions-contact-info>.

If you have any questions or need further assistance, please contact the Licensing Division at gaming.licensing@gov.bc.ca or 250.387.5311 ext. 1.

1. Before you start your online application

Before starting a licence application, familiarize yourself with important, related information, including: organization eligibility; prize restrictions; eligible uses of net gaming proceeds; application processing times and more.

The above information is available on the Gambling Event Fundraising page on the Gaming Policy and Enforcement Branch (GPEB) website (<https://www2.gov.bc.ca/gov/content/sports-culture/gambling-fundraising/gambling-licence-fundraising>).

Additional notes about completing your online application:

- You must complete your application in one session; you cannot save your application and return to it later.
- Most applicants will be able to complete their application in under 30 minutes if they have prepared ahead of time by reviewing the pre-application checklist (see link above).
- Please be aware that you may run into issues if you take longer than 30 minutes to complete your application.
- Do not click your web browser back button or refresh button while completing your application.
- Do not copy and paste from other documents into the application fields.
- Application fields that allow for multiple lines of text have limits of 4,000 characters including spaces and punctuation.

Uploading Documents:

- Make sure that any supporting documents you attach are in one of the following formats:
 - DOC, DOCX, XLS, XLSX, PDF, JPG
 - Each attachment should have a file extension matching one of the above; attachments with other formats are not accepted and may cause errors.
- Electronic copies of physical documents can be made by any of the following methods:
 - Scanning the document using a scanner.
 - Taking a digital photo of the document and saving it as a JPG file.
 - Using a PDF scanner app available on most smart phones.

2. Visit the GPEB website and click on the “Online Service” link

You can start a licence application by visiting the GPEB website at gaming.gov.bc.ca. Look for and click the “Online Service” link as shown below.

The screenshot shows the website's navigation menu with 'Gaming & Fundraising' selected. The main content area features a grid of links: 'Gambling in B.C.', 'Gaming Grants', 'Gambling Event Licence Fundraising', 'Horse Racing', 'Responsible Gambling', 'Registration & Certification', 'Enforcement & Investigations', and 'News & Updates'. Each link has a brief description and an 'Explore Within' button. On the right sidebar, there is a 'News' section with recent articles and an 'Online Service' section with a button circled in red. Below that is a 'Contact Information' section.

If you have a Business BCeID that has been registered for use with the Gaming Online Service, scroll to the bottom of this page to Additional Services for Organizations with a BCeID.

Apply Online

Select Apply Online to submit community gaming grant and gaming event licence applications, or to request special approvals (out-of-province travel, capital project, and fair/exhibition). Some types of applications may take a while to complete. Please prepare for your grant or licence application by reviewing the Pre-Application Information for Gaming Grants or the Pre-Application Information for Gambling Event Licences before you start your online application.

View Application Status Reports

After you submit an application, you can track where it is in the approval process - select View Application Status Reports.

View Registry Reports

When you select View Registry Reports, a window will open for you to select one of three current gaming registry reports:

1. Personnel Registry - lists registered gaming workers in B.C.
2. Equipment Registry - lists certified gaming equipment and lottery schemes.
3. Corporate Registry - lists registered companies and senior officials in B.C.

File a Complaint

Select File a Criminal or Regulatory Complaint to submit a complaint or allegation of criminal or regulatory wrong-doing in gaming or horse racing in B.C. If you do not wish to file an official complaint under the Gaming Control Act but wish to submit feedback or have a question of a general nature, you can submit the question by sending an e-mail, see Contact Us.

Additional Services for Organizations with a BCeID

PLEASE NOTE:

The Gaming Online Service no longer supports the use of Business BCeID. Grants and Licensing applicants should not use their BCeID in their online application. You can submit your application without a BCeID here. For reporting questions related to your Gaming Account please contact either Community Gaming Grants or Gaming Policy and Enforcement Licensing.

Important Information

Have you prepared for your application?

Some applications take a while to complete. We suggest planning for 30 to 60 minutes. With this system you cannot save your application and return to it later. To get through your application as efficiently as possible, please prepare before you start by reviewing the following information (pre-application checklists, frequently asked questions and more):

- Pre-Application Information for Gaming Grants or
- Pre-Application Information for Gambling Event Licences

Please use the Search function to determine whether your organization exists in our system.

If more than one result appears for your search, please select the applicable record.
If your organization does not appear in this list, please refine your search or click New Applicant.

Use the % sign (wildcard) before and after specific words to assist in your search (eg: %test%).

Name: ?

Avoid using punctuation marks (i.e. periods, apostrophes) and words that are often abbreviated (i.e. St for Saint, BC for British Columbia) as these may restrict your search.
