

Buy a Hunting or Species Licence for Yourself

What are these licences for?	A hunting licence is required to hunt in B.C. and to buy a species licence. A species licence is required to hunt big game in B.C.
Who can buy these licences?	Resident, non-resident or non-resident alien adults (18 or older) can buy a hunting licence. Resident, non-resident or non-resident alien hunters (10 and older) can buy a species licence.
Who can hold these licences?	Resident, non-resident or non-resident alien hunters (10 or older).

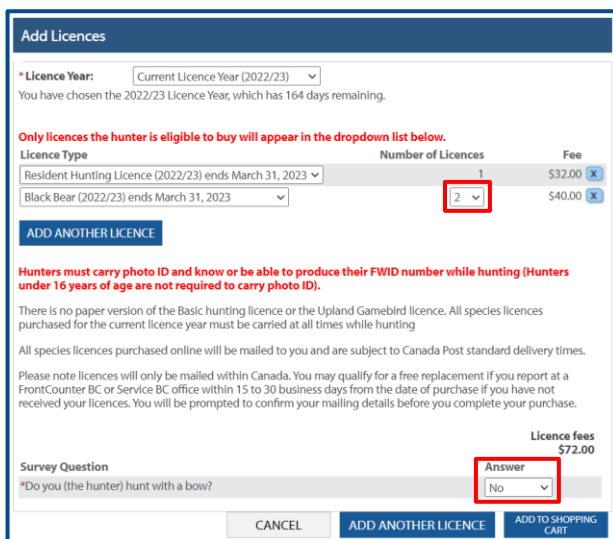

Before you start

Before you buy your licence, make sure you have:

- A verified, active Fish and Wildlife ID (FWID)
- An active residency credential
- A Hunting credential (depending on the licence type)
- Credit card for payment

Click Buy Licences under the Licences left menu item, or from the top banner on your Fish and Wildlife profile.

NOTE: If you do not see a “Buy Licences” link, please check your profile has been verified.

Choose your licence(s)

- Click Buy Licences for Yourself
- Choose the Licence Year (if applicable)
- Click Add Licence and choose the licence you want to buy. If you don't already have a basic hunting licence, you will need to add that first.
- Species Licences will show in the list after you've added your hunting licence (if you are eligible to buy species licences).
- Select the number of licences you wish to buy (only for species with a bag limit over 1).
- Review any licence conditions, information and fees
- Answer the Survey Question (dropdown)
- Click Add Another Licence and repeat until you have all the licences you need
- Click Add to Shopping Cart - pop-up will close
- Click Proceed to Checkout

NOTE: If you are not a B.C. resident and not named on a valid PTA for the selected licence year you will need to enter a valid Guide Outfitter Licence number to buy licences.
