

Guide Outfitter Licence & Notice of Quota

|-------------------------|---|
| Required when: | A guide outfitter wants to access their guide outfitter licence. A guide outfitter wants to access their notice of quota letter, where applicable. |
| Who is eligible? | A Guide Outfitter who has held a guide licence in the BC Hunting online service. |

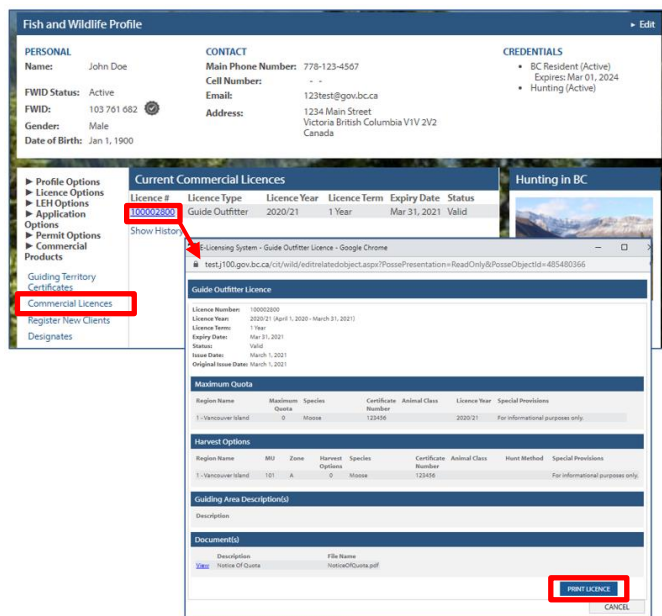

Before you start

Before you access your guide outfitter licence, make sure you have:

- An active Fish and Wildlife ID with verified user status.
- A basic BCeID to sign on to the BC Hunting Online service.
- A submitted and approved Guide Outfitter Licence Application.

Log in to your Fish and Wildlife profile from the B.C. Hunting homepage at www.gov.bc.ca/hunting.

Next, click on Commercial Licences under Commercial Products on the left-hand side of your profile home page.

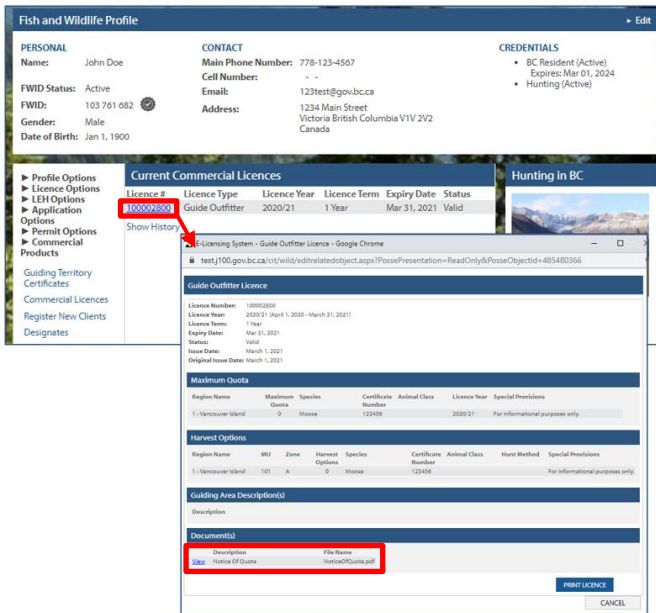

Access your guide outfitter licence

- Your issued licence(s) for the current licence year will be displayed, indicating the current status.
- To view historic licences, click the Show History link.
- Select the licence number to open the licence information in a pop-up window.
- View, save or print your licence by selecting PRINT LICENCE.

NOTE: You are not required to carry a copy of your guide outfitter licence while guiding. However, you must carry a valid government-issued photo ID and be able to produce your Fish & Wildlife ID number. Conservation Officers will be able to access your profile and verify your licences in the field.

Guide Outfitter Licence & Notice of Quota

Access your notice of quota

- From the licence information pop-up window, the Notice of Quota letter will be available under the Documents section, if applicable.
- View, save or print your notice of quota letter by selecting View.

NOTE: Not all guide outfitter licences will have a notice of quota. Notice of quota letters are only issued when quota has been attached as a condition of the licence by the Director of Wildlife.
