Scheduled Filers Must Submit Tax Returns Using eTaxBC

Carbon Tax Act and Motor Fuel Tax Act

Effective for reporting periods that start on or after April 1, 2022, all taxpayers with motor fuel and carbon tax accounts on a scheduled filing frequency (e.g. monthly or quarterly) must file their tax returns online using eTaxBC.

eTaxBC is a free and secure 24/7 online B.C. government application that gives you access to a variety of convenient online services where you can manage and update your accounts, file returns, make payments and communicate with us securely.

Although you must file your returns using eTaxBC, you can still pay by cheque, electronic transfer of funds (EFT), or by using the PAD payment option within eTaxBC.

We will be contacting scheduled filers who are not filing returns in eTaxBC with detailed instructions on how to do so. If you want more information now, see enrol for access to eTaxBC and the eTaxBC help guide for how to add a registered account, file returns, make payments and customize your account preferences.

Once you are enrolled in eTaxBC, you will receive an email notification stating when your next tax return is available for filing for each registered account.

If you have any questions, please contact us.
