Highway 3: Hope to Princeton

- This is a safe highway, but drivers must drive to conditions
- Obey speed limits and adhere to curve advisory speed signs
- Pay attention for road work and construction
- Mountainous road that can see large temperature swings
- Conditions can change quickly, have sufficient supplies available
- Be sure you carry tire chains and know how to install
- Complete brake checks and vehicle inspections

BRITISH COLUMBIA | Ministry of Transportation and Transit

South Okanagan

Fraser Valley

EC MANNING PROVINCIAL PARK

1

5

5A

3

Hope

Princeton

EXIT
CHAIN UP AREA

RUNAWAY LANE

BRAKE CHECK

Long grade of 6% for 15 km Downhill WB

Tight corner after long straight, slow from 100 km/h to 50 km/h

Narrow canyon section, minimal shoulder, tight curves, speed advising of 50 km/h

ALLISON PASS SUMMIT | 1342 m.

Manning Park Lodge

Long grade of up to 7% Downhill EB

Steep grades, tight corners down to 30 km/h

Windy section with steep grades and corners down to 40 km/h

SUNDAY SUMMIT | 1282 m.

Windy section with steep grades and corners down to 30 km/h

ITEMS TO NOTE!

- 135 km distance that is majority 2 lanes with over 150 curves
- Many tight curves with speed advisories as low as 30 km/h
- Grades of up to 8%
- 3 brake checks with limited rest areas and stopping areas

30 km/h

8 %

LEGEND

Highways | Parks